

WORLD HEARING DAY - ZANZIBAR CELEBRATION

ZOP in partnership with IMPACT Switzerland joined the world in commemorate the World Hearing Day, which celebrates every year on 3rd March to raise awareness on hearing. The world message for the year 2020 is Make Listening Safe and we had to translate it to Swahili to make needed impact to Zanzibar community as well as to any person who speaks Swahili within the globe. We have shared those Swahili version posters on Facebook, whatsApp and ZOP website.

The main activities we had for this year included :

1. Distribution of the posters for public awareness, production of t-shirts with this year theme, and hanging out of the banner at the Mnazi Mmoja hospital wall facing the main entrance of the hospital

2. Television and radio programs on different channels such as Island television, Chuchu Fm and Zanzibar Cable Television

3. School for the deaf and Post hearing Aid rehabilitation Centre Parents Day. The event used to show cast the parents and community at large the capacity of deaf children in learning, playing and on hand work just like normal hearing children

4. Health education, Screening and treatment of ear diseases at Mwanakwerekwe Primary school

Many thanks to IMPACT Switzerland who has been supporting the World Hearing Activities in Zanzibar for the third consequence year
